2011

ISOCARP Awards for Excellence

The 2011 ISOCARP Awards for Excellence will stimulate and promote innovative spatial projects, successfully elaborated and / or implemented by local, regional, national authorities or other institutions – thus improving natural and built environment, quality of life and cultural development. This year special emphasis will be given to projects recognising the importance and significance of spatial and environmental planning in the area of climate change and globalisation and the participatory planning processes that best express the theme of the 47th ISOCARP World Congress on “LIVEABLE CITIES: URBANISING WORLD, Meeting the Challenge” in Wuhan, China.

The projects awarded will be those which are considered of outstanding importance by an independent jury composed of qualified planning practitioners and academics based in different parts of the world. The jury intends to establish categories of awards for projects in the following areas: Academia, Policy/ Governance, Planning Praxis and Developer/ Industry.

The International Society of City and Regional Planners has the pleasure to invite to submit entries for the 2011 ISOCARP Awards for Excellence. Please have a look for further details, selection criteria and the application procedure on:
