Awards for Excellence 2015

Aim of the Awards

The ISOCARP Awards for Excellence (IAE) are conferred in recognition of exceptionally innovative urban and regional planning initiatives in an increasingly urbanized world. Through the IAE, ISOCARP intends to encourage and promote innovative spatial projects at different scales, that have resulted in improved natural or built environment, enhanced quality of life, sustain-ability and resilience.

The awards expanded their range of action in this special edition. The IAE, as always, is to reward plans and projects in the design phase, with process in progress, or already implemented experiences. Moreover, we now invite participants to also send us projects or ideas linked to research works on topics related to town and country planning. The IAE is open to a vast range of professionals and institutions operating in the domain of town and country planning:

- Architecture/town planning/engineering companies
- Cities (public administrations/urban development agencies)
- Universities' departments/research centres
- Communities
- Students, freelancers
