CALL for INTERNATIONAL PARTICIPANTS
– YOUNG PLANNING PROFESSIONALS

BACKGROUND

ISOCARP and the Urban Planning Society of China (UPSC) have recently made an agreement which entails a Young Planning Professionals National Workshop, intended for Chinese and international young planners and being a part of the pre-congress activities. This workshop is a part of ISOCARP's Young Planning Professionals' Program, which since 1991 has been bringing together young professional urban planners from all parts of the world. The YPP Workshops provide an opportunity to work together as a closely-knit team. The workshops are hands-on and aimed at establishing a good working relationship with young colleagues from all parts of the world, while working towards results in a very short period of time. Within the framework of the YPP National workshop in China it is intended to bring together a group of 16 CHINESE YPPs AS WELL AS 4 INTERNATIONAL YPPs.

OBJECTIVES AND THEME OF THE WORKSHOP:

The workshop aims to provide young Chinese and international planners responsible for, or participating in, the shaping and development of settlements, with the principles and practices of effective contemporary urbanism and practical knowledge that will be of immediate use to each participant.

The objective of the workshop is to provide the workshop participants with hands-on practical experiences. YPPs work in a studio setting under the guidance of two international experts from among the members of ISOCARP on a project site chosen jointly by ISOCARP, UPSC and representatives of the local partners from Guangzhou municipality and region. They will be accompanied by the ISOCARP Vice President responsible for the YPP program for the entire duration of their stay in Guangzhou.

The theme of the workshop is associated with the regeneration of a large urban area, located in close proximity to Guangzhou city center. This site was one of the pioneer areas leading Guangzhou prosperity in the early 19 century with all trades related to inner harbor, famous for cultural heritages and traditional southern China architectures. The former commercial and retail center, now under deterioration, needs regeneration and redevelopment.

AUDIENCE:

The workshop is targeted at junior Chinese and international planners. They come from various backgrounds such as architecture, civil engineering, spatial planning and real estate management. Most of them have professional degrees in planning and a few years of planning practice. It is intended that the workshop will gather 16 Chinese YPPs along with 4 international YPPs.

CONTRIBUTION AND EXPENSES:

Tasks:

Each participant will spend 4 and a half days working with the YPP group during May 23-26th 2016. Before and after, there may be a necessity of conducting meetings with local hosts and press. Therefore, workshop participants shall arrive on 22nd of May in the early afternoon AT LATEST and depart not earlier than 28th of May in the morning.

Expenses:

ISOCARP will provide the international travel allowance of up to 500 Euro for the selected Young Planning Professionals. ANY ADDITIONAL COSTS HAVE TO BE BORNE BY PARTICIPANTS THEMSELVES. ISOCARP HAS A LIMITED BUDGET FOR THIS ASSIGNMENT. The money will be paid after completing the task ACCORDING TO THE RULES AND REGULATIONS PROVIDED TO THE SELECTED CANDIDATES AND AFTER RECEIVING THE ORIGINAL TRAVEL DOCUMENTS. UPSC along with the local partners will be in charge of arranging hotels, meals and local transportation for the entire duration of the workshop within the agreed dates.

LOGISTICS:

- The location of the YPP Workshop will be Guangzhou, People's Republic of China
- Expected arrival dates to Guangzhou – 22 May
- Departures should be scheduled: at the latest the day after the public presentation of the Workshop results – so not earlier than 28 May in the morning

Workshop participants are welcome to stay in China longer. However, their expenses for additional time spent in China beyond the time required for the workshop have to be borne by themselves. Both UPSC and ISOCARP should timely be informed on such an extension.

Selected workshop participants will be asked to arrange the INTERNATIONAL trip on their own. Please note that from many destinations the most convenient way to get to Guangzhou is to go through Hong Kong. PLEASE CONSULT YOUR TRAVEL PLANS IN ADVANCE WITH VP YPP Piotr Lorens.
