

Call for ISOCARP Award for Excellence 2023

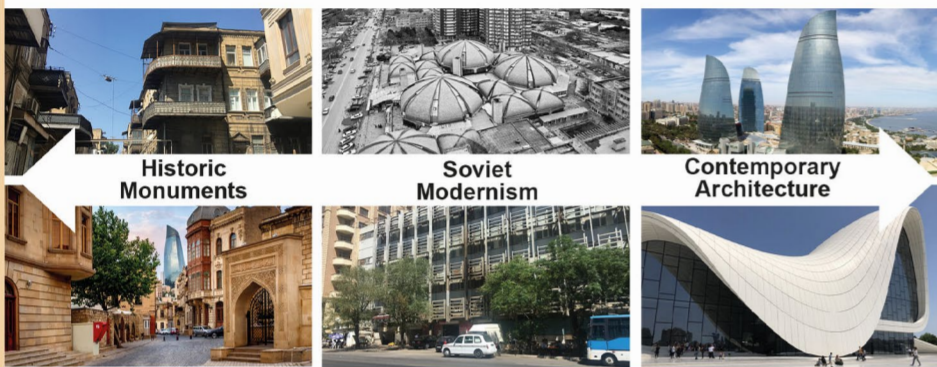

2022 Grand Award for Excellence Winner:
“Our Future with Nature: A Smart-Green-Resilient Approach for NTN, the New Frontier of Hong Kong” by ARUP, Hong Kong

Smart & Green Development

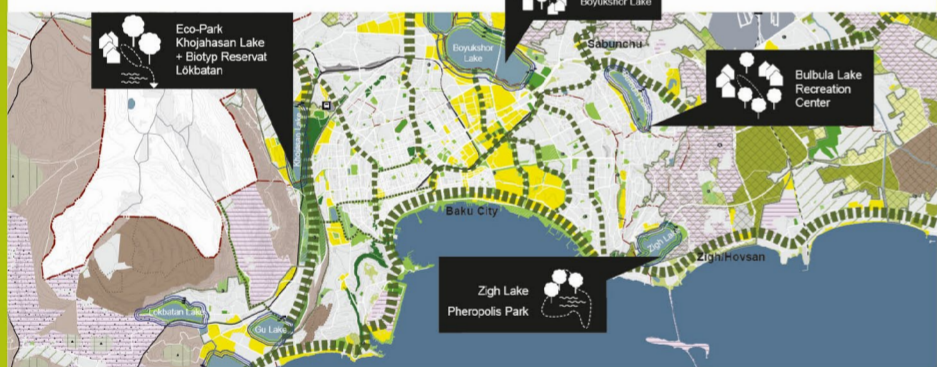

Transforming Baku into a Balanced and Resilient Region

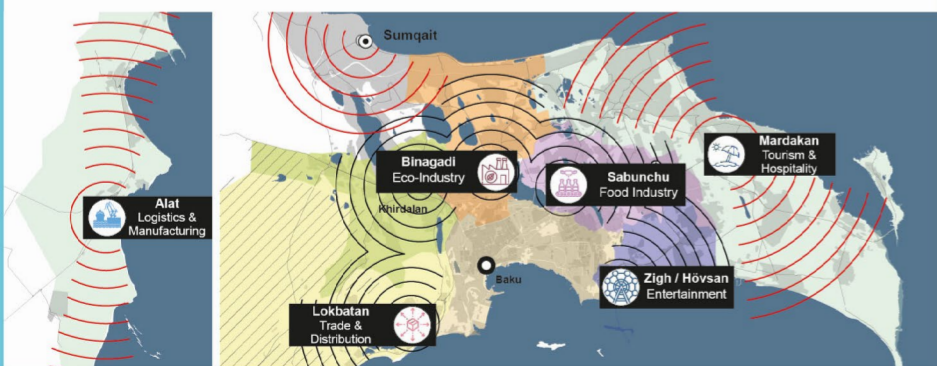

Heritage Protection - Bridging Past + Present + Future

New Public Green Spaces

Integrated New Urban Economy

Background and objectives

The ISOCARP Award for Excellence, established in 2005, rewards plans in design phase as well as projects in progress or already implemented. The Award is open to a wide range of professionals and institutions operating in the domain of urban and regional planning: architecture and/or urban planning companies; cities (public administrations and/or urban development agencies); university departments and/or research institutes; NGOs, and freelancers.

Eligible entries

The submissions may include the following:

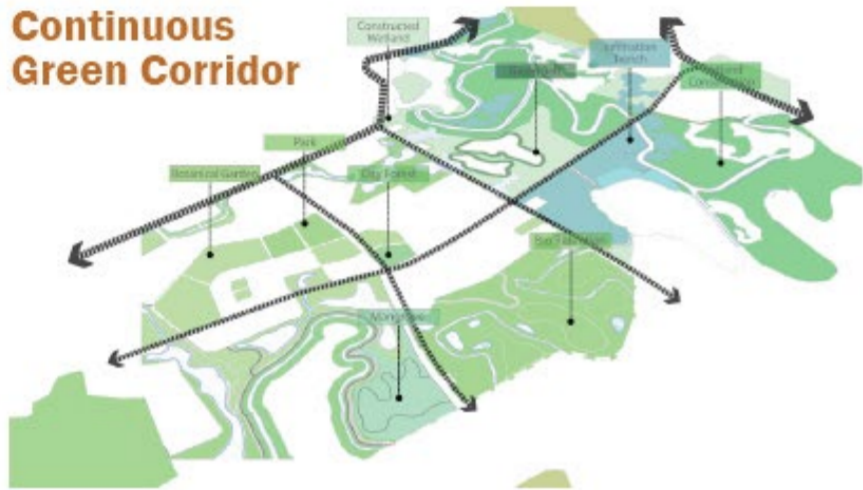

- Normative plans
- Strategic plans
- Urban plans
- Urban design projects
- Urban policies
- Research works
- Software/smart tools facilitating planners

2022 Grand Award for Excellence Winner:
"Baku General Master Plan 2040" by AS+P, Germany

Continuous Blue Corridor

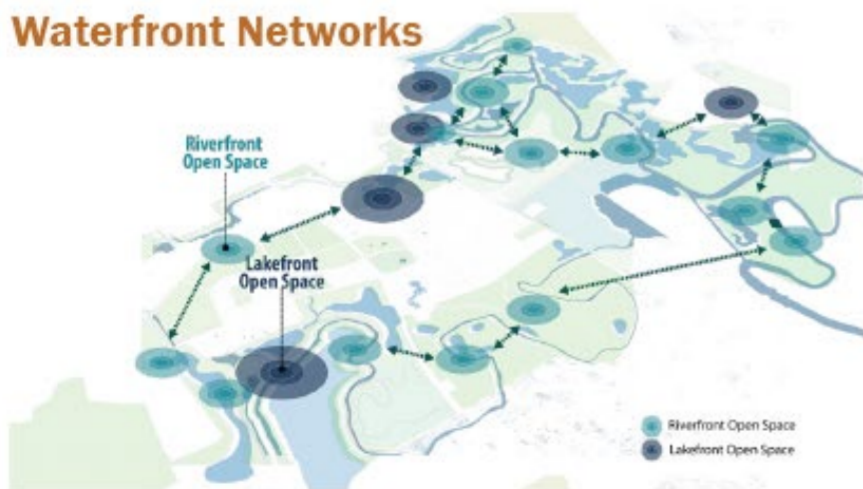

Continuous Green Corridor

Flora & Fauna Corridor

Waterfront Networks

2022 Merit Award for Excellence Winners:
“Batulicin 2045: Bioconnectivity” by Nusantara Urban Advisory, Indonesia

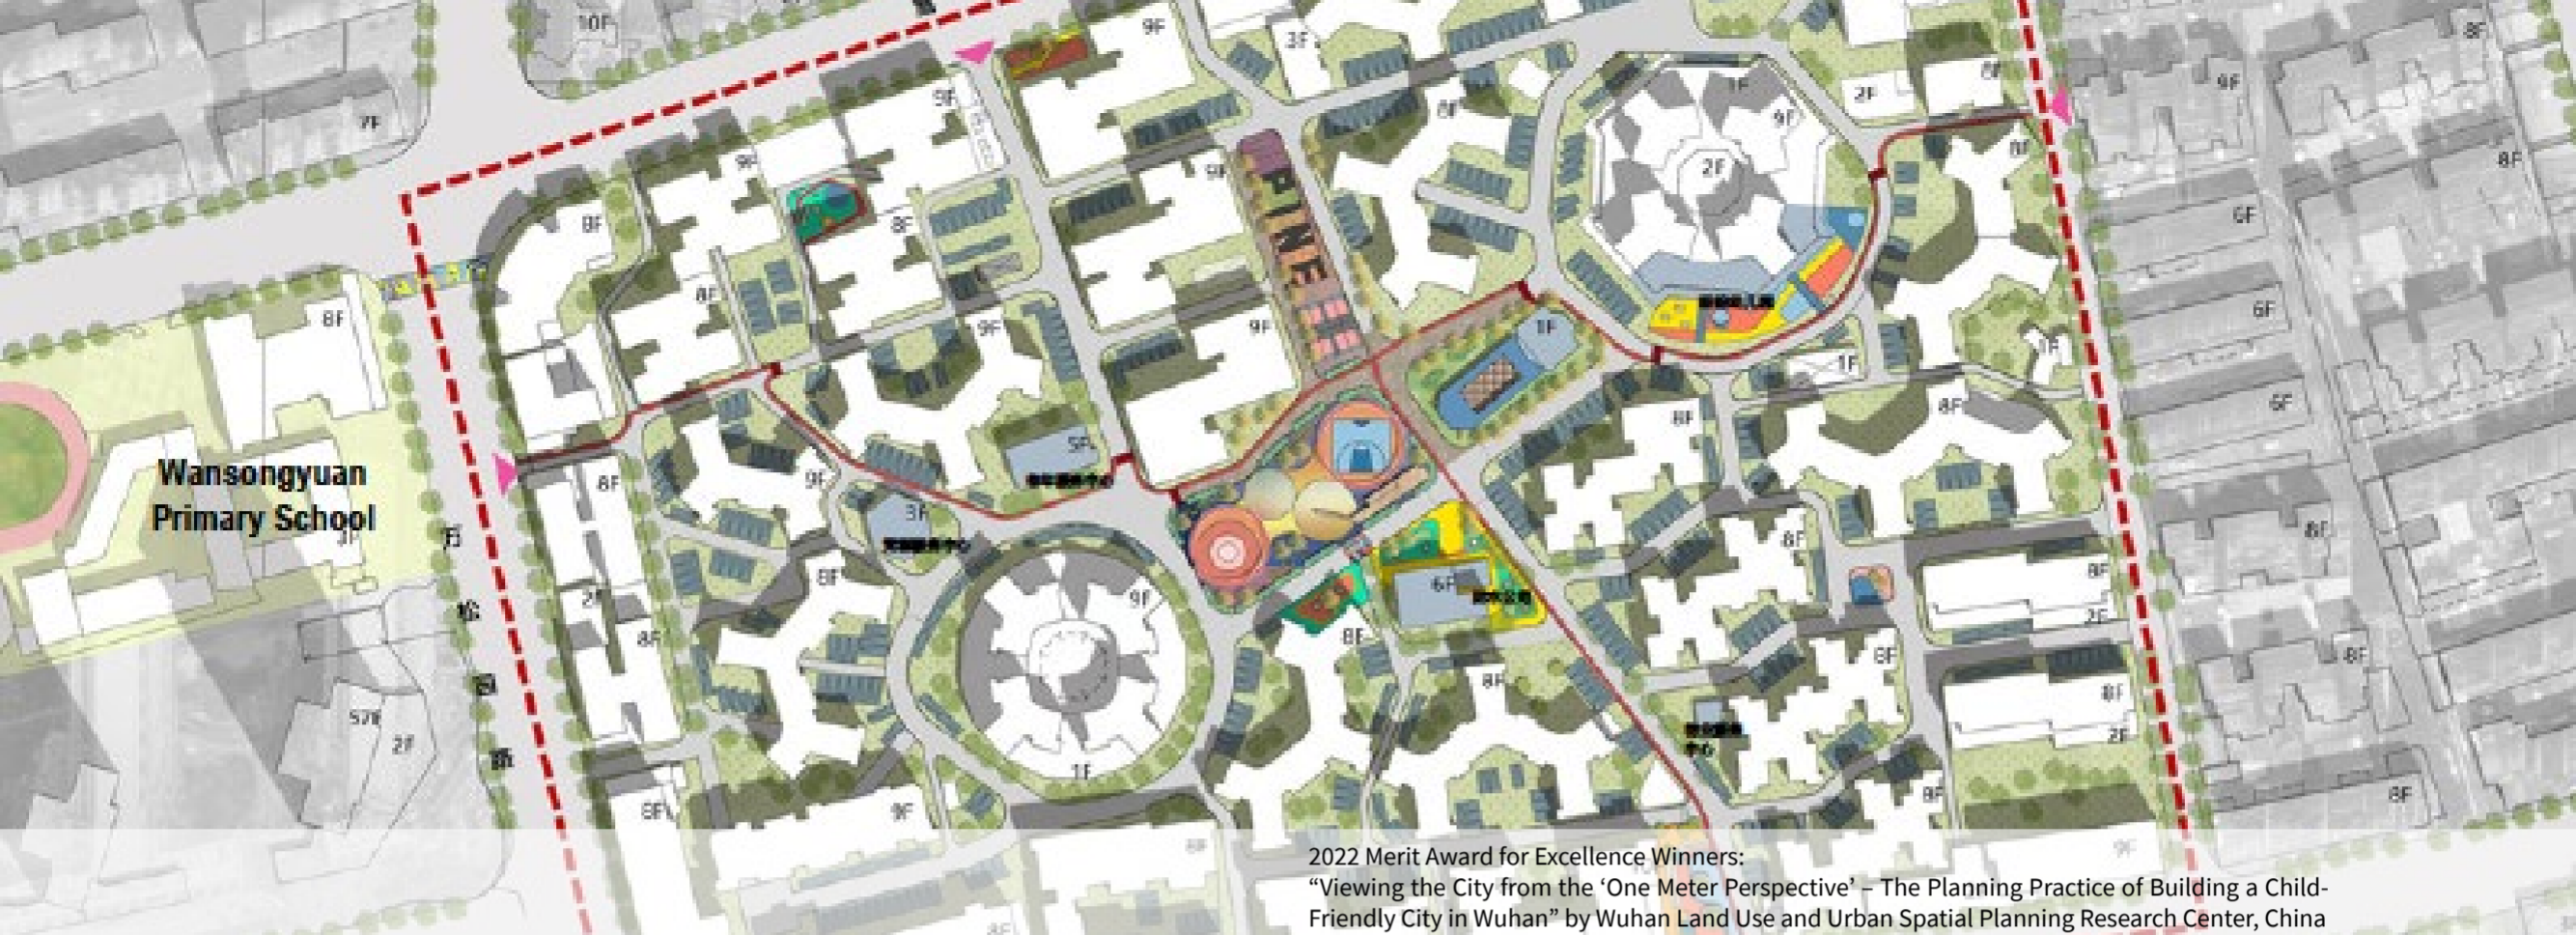

Topics addressed

The call for the Award covers, but is not limited to, the following topics:

- Low Carbon Urban Development
- Cross-border planning for better urban governance
- Town / Country Development
- Urban Regeneration / Brownfield Redevelopment
- Temporary / Transitional Uses
- Strategic urban development and climate change-related needs
- Mobility and Accessibility
- Urban / Metropolitan Ecology / Agriculture
- Social Innovation / Inclusive Planning Processes
- Smart Communities
- Disaster Risk Reduction
- Affordability and accessibility of technologies’ application in policymaking, planning and urban finance

Evaluation criteria

- Sustainability (processes, projects)
- Resilience (resources, energy efficiency, etc.)
- Alignment between planning strategies and contextual socio-economic problems
- Learning planning processes
- Innovation

2022 Merit Award for Excellence Winners:
 “Viewing the City from the ‘One Meter Perspective’ – The Planning Practice of Building a Child-Friendly City in Wuhan” by Wuhan Land Use and Urban Spatial Planning Research Center, China

Jury

The jury is composed of the following ISOCARP members (experienced practitioners) and academics.

Dr. Pietro Elisei

Dr. Dara Golubovic Matic

UP. Hadeel Abuzaid

Prof. Ali A. Alraouf (A&P Program Director)

Substance of the Award

The Award is bestowed in two categories: Grand Award and Merit Award. The Award winners are announced during the official ceremony at the ISOCARP annual World Planning Congress.

Grand Award: one year of free membership to ISOCARP, free entrance to the congress, official ISOCARP plaque, official ISOCARP certification of the award and dissemination of the project through the ISOCARP website, social media and newsletter.

Merit Award: free entrance to the congress, official ISOCARP plaque, official ISOCARP certification of the award, and dissemination of the project through the ISOCARP website, social media and newsletter.

Registration fee

ISOCARP Institutional Member: 500 Euros for each entry (a candidate can apply with multiple proposals).

Non-ISOCARP Institutional Member: 1000 Euros for each entry (a candidate can apply with multiple proposals).

Remark: The application is not considered eligible if the registration fee has not been paid.

Submission material

1. Entry form including short outline
2. A description of the plan / project / policy (max. 10,000 characters with spaces)
3. Drawings, maps, posters, graphical representations, charters necessary to illustrate the work (max. 4 A3 pages)
4. A video illustrating the work.

Application procedure

Online application

Deadline for submission

June 30, 2023

SUBMIT YOUR ENTRY HERE

International Society of City and Regional Planners

Waldorpstraat 17

2521 CA The Hague

www.isocarp.org | isocarp@isocarp.org

Suzhou Child-Friendly City Planning

- ✓ Children's entertainment facilities in the community need to take into account different ages of children.
- ✓ Children under the age of 6 need sandpit more. Children aged 7 to 12 need more challenging and exploratory facilities. Children over 12 want a professional sports ground.

Construction and Publicity

2022 Merit Award for Excellence Winners:
"Suzhou Child Friendly City Planning" by CCDI, China